

Wednesday April 6 marked the official opening of the second Zone in Dekwaneh under the patronage of the Mayor of Dekwaneh Mr. Antoine Chakhtoura, gathering an IPT station offering premium gas solutions, a Metro Express presenting a wide variety of convenience shopping, and the leading name in quick service restaurants, McDonald's. Mr. Antoine Chakhtoura, IPT Group Chairman Mr. Michel Issa, Metro Express Chairman Mr. Oliver Geha, and General Manager of McDonald's Lebanon Mr. Rashwan Miknas, Dr Toni Issa IPT's board of Directors member launched this exceptional event through their words stressing on the importance of such zones in Lebanon and the facilities it provides to the customers when it comes to their dailies activities. Mr. Chakhtoura together with the organizers alongside Ronald McDonald, McDonald's Chief of Happiness, joined their hands together to cut, once again, their alliance's rope followed by the cake cutting to announce Dekwaneh's Zone officially open. Hosts delightfully convoyed guests around the facility where they had the opportunity to exploit the advantages of this new zone while discovering the Laser Car wash available at most IPT gas stations, cool shopping at Metro Express and the quick service food convenience of McDonald's respectively. This new zone includes an IPT gas station, a McDonald's restaurant, drive-thru, delivery service and a Metro Express with large convenience shop featuring a delicatessen section, and all sorts of beverages and snacks , Byblos Bank ATM machine , Mountain Mudd Espresso... The Dekwaneh Zone is the second of its kind in Lebanon after the first gathering the same three partners in Amchit Highway offering this premium services to the community of Jbeil region.